Narrative Overview of the Activity

On June 27th, 2012 at approximately 1930, the Bayou Carlin Facility, owned and operated by Hilcorp Energy Company, was discovered to have discharged approximately 21 gallons of crude oil, resulting in a sheen on the water's surface. The facility representatives believe the crude oil in the water was attributed to removing a permanently moored barge from the facility, which had previously held the product in place. The original cause of the discharge is unknown.

The product in the water was secured by containment boom, and E. S.and H. was hired by Hilcorp Energy Company to remove the affected vegetation surrounding the facility as well as the recoverable product in the water. Representatives from Hilcorp Energy Company stated they would continue maintenance and repairs as needed to prevent a reoccurrence. The remaining sheen dissipated naturally.

A category C civil penalty is recommended due to Hilcorp Energy Company's failure to notify the National Response Center of an approximate 21 gallon crude oil discharge from the Bayou Carlin Facility and the lack of regard for the environment allowing the discharged crude oil to remain around their production facility for an extended amount of time. A penalty amount of $20,000.00 is therefore recommended in accordance with COMDINST 16200.3A Table 1-D.

Aggravating/Mitigating Factors

1. 1. Gravity - (Minor)

- 2. Culpability Hilcorp Energy Company accepted responsibility for the crude oil surrounding their production facility. Facility personnel stated the crude oil was from previously unreported discharges, and was trapped behind a moored barge that when moved caused the crude oil to spread damaging the environment (Major).
- 3. Estimated Cost of Compliance $5,000 for civil penalty as per guidance in COMDTINST 16200.3A, Table 1-D, plus the cost of removal.
- 4. History of Similar Violations The Bayou Carlin Facility, according to MISLE, only has one previous violation in which a discharge of crude oil occurred (Case: 265484). The discharge was a result of a hurricane.
- 5. Demonstrated good faith or lack of good faith Hilcorp Energy Company demonstrated lack of good faith due to the lack of operational oversight / control over their production facility. Hilcorp Energy Company stated that rounds were made daily to that production facility and although they were aware of the pollution prevention regulations, did not make the proper notifications. The estimated time frame the emulsified crude oil had been surrounding Hilcorp Energy Company's production facility was approximately 1 week, possibly longer.
- 6. Ability to pay Hilcorp Energy Company has the financial means to pay the recommended civil penalty.
- 7. Economic impact N/A
- 8. Other circumstances in aggravation Hilcorp Energy Company had removed the moored barge from the Bayou Carlin Facility days before the initial NRC report 1015821 was made by an anonymous fisherman who witnessed a sheen in an adjoining bayou. Hilcorp Energy Company stated the failure to notify the NRC was due to a lack of communication between the facility operators and the field foreman. Attempts were made to clean the production facility due to the fact that there were multiple bags of used absorbent pads on the facility found on the initial Coast Guard patrol.

- 9. Other circumstances in mitigation After the fact, Hilcorp Energy Company replaced the tattered boom stationed around their production facility to minimize the effects of future discharges. Without prompting from MSU Morgan City personnel Hilcorp Energy Company hired E.S.& H. to clean up the crude oil under Coast Guard supervision.
- 10. Other matters as justice may require N/A
- 11. Other particular factors required by the violated statute N/A

Aggravating/Mitigating Factors

- 1. 1. Gravity Minor
- Culpability Hilcorp Energy Company has accepted responsibility of the discharge via NRC Report #1016035 (Major)
- 3. Estimated Cost of Compliance $15,000 is recommended, as per guidance from COMDTINST 16200.3A table 1-D, for Hilcorp Energy Company's failure to immediately notify the National Response Center of a discharge of oil.
- 4. History of Similar Violations The Bayou Carlin Facility currently has no known history of similar violations not making the proper notifications in the event of oil discharge.
- 5. Demonstrated good faith or lack of good faith Hilcorp Energy Company has demonstrated lack of good faith by denying the knowledge of an oil discharge, but acknowledging themselves as the responsible party.
- 6. Ability to pay N/A
- 7. Economic impact N/A
- 8. Other circumstances in aggravation While facility representatives denied knowledge of a discharge, they stated there may have been oil trapped between a permanently moored barge and the facility. Hilcorp had removed the barge from the Bayou Carlin Facility days before the initial NRC report (1015821) was made by an anonymous fisherman. Hilcorp stated that daily patrols had been conducted of the unmanned facility. A visible sheen was inside containment boom as well as in the water surrounding the mooring area at the facility. Their failure to notify the NRC of the oil in the water was due to a lack of communication between the facility operators and the foreman.
- 9. Other circumstances in mitigation None
- 10. Other matters as justice may require None
- 11. Other particular factors required by the violated statute None

Exhibit Desc:

On June 27th, 2012 at approximately 1930, the Bayou Carlin Facility, owned and operated by Hilcorp Energy Company, was discovered to have discharged approximately 21 gallons of crude oil, resulting in a sheen on the water's surface. The facility representatives believe the crude oil in the water was attributed to removing a permanently moored barge from the facility, which had previously held the product in place. The original cause of the discharge is unknown.

The product in the water was secured by containment boom, and E. S. and H. was hired by Hilcorp Energy Company to remove the affected vegetation surrounding the facility as well as the recoverable product in the water. Representatives from Hilcorp Energy Company stated they would continue maintenance and repairs as needed to prevent a reoccurrence. The remaining sheen dissipated naturally.
